

California Community Colleges Council for Professional Development Application to Serve on Board of Directors

The California Community Colleges Council for Professional Development (4CPD), formerly known as 4CSD, is the professional association for all professional development practitioners in the California Community College system. 4CPD's mission is:

To create collaborative learning opportunities for professional development practitioners in the California Community College system in order to foster innovation and equity at each college. In partnership with the California Community College Chancellor's Office, 4CPD advocates for funding, resources, and policy change to enable effective professional learning statewide.

Application

I am applying to run in the election for a seat or be appointed to serve on the 4CPD Board of Directors.

President/Chancellor Approval

4CPD bylaws require that all candidates for a board seat secure support from their College President or District Superintendent. This support includes providing the resources necessary for the fulfillment of board-related duties. This support is in the form of telephone, email and mail privileges, and reasonable release time from teaching and/or office schedules to participate in 4CPD activities, annual conference, and meetings.

Yes, I am in support of the applicant listed above serving on the 4CPD board, if elected/appointed, and agree to provide the resources and support outlined above.
